

THE KING'S CONDITION STILL CAUSING ANXIETY

London, Dec. 5.—It was understood in Buckingham Palace circles this afternoon that King George's condition was unchanged.

London, Dec. 5.—An anxious public learned today when a medical bulletin of King George's physicians was issued that his majesty was suffering from renewed activity of the infection in his chest. Previously an improvement in this condition had been reported, but today's bulletin stated that this was what had caused the disturbance in his temperature which was noted yesterday. There was a measure of relief to the popular mind, however, in the announcement that there were reasons for hoping that this recrudescence was being moderated and also that the night had been a fairly comfortable one for the king.

There was nothing specific in the morning bulletin regarding the king's temperature. Nor was anything said as to how his heart was reacting to the long strain of illness, which it had been strongly reiterated recently was the vital point upon the king's chances of recovery from his grave illness rested.

The bulletin was signed by Sir Stanley Hewett and Lord Dawson of Penn and read:

"The king passed a fair night. There are reasons to hope that the recrudescence of the infection which caused the last rise of temperature is being moderated."

In palace quarters the physicians' morning report was regarded favorably. It was said that a recrudescence of the infection which caused yesterday's rise in temperature was considered as part of the ordinary course of the king's illness and as such had been expected by his doctors.

The fact that his majesty was able

CURRAN GRIER HOME BURNED—FIRE OCCURS ON MACLEOD FARM WHEN OCCUPANTS ARE IN MACLEOD

A most disastrous fire took place about 5 miles northwest of Macleod some time during last Saturday night, when the dwelling house on the farm of Curran Grier was completely destroyed, with all the contents.

Mr. Grier and his son Ashley went out from town Saturday evening to fix the fire for the night in the furnace, a coal furnace with a hot water heating system. They returned to their house in town, leaving everything safe and in good shape. The first they heard of the fire was late Sunday forenoon, when hunters returning from the north who passed the farm about 4 o'clock this morning. At that hour the fire had almost burned out, showing that it had been going for a number of hours.

The house was only built a few years ago and was a well built substantial house in good repair, which makes the fire all the more mysterious. No other buildings were touched, although the old house is only a short distance from the burned building, it was not even scorched. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

to obtain more rest again during the night was regarded as a favorable sign.

CIVIL CASES HEARD IN MACLEOD COURT

The Supreme Court of Alberta opened the fall sessions for civil cases in the courthouse on Monday afternoon, with Mr. Justice Ives on the bench. There are five cases on the docket for hearing: M. B. Davis vs. R. W. Bartlett; J. W. McDonald, K. C., solicitor for plaintiff; J. C. Hiebert, solicitor for defendant; Alma M. Dutil, executrix of the will of Louis Dutil, vs. Lance L. Morgan and Richard W. Morgan and Crow's Nest Pass Motors; J. E. Gillis, Blairmore, solicitor for plaintiff; S. G. Bannan, Blairmore, for the defendant. H. J. Reidema, National Protective Agency, vs. Joe Michalsky, Coleman Trading Company; R. E. Barnes, Coleman, solicitor for plaintiff; J. E. Gillis, solicitor, Blairmore, for the defendant. Katie Morris vs. George Dutka; J. W. McDonald, K. C., for plaintiff; J. E. Gillis for defendant. Anna Elizabeth Reid vs. John Henry Hiner; Bennett, Hannah, and Sanford, Calgary, solicitors for the plaintiff; Mr. Nolan handled the case for that firm; J. D. Matheson, K. C., for the defendant.

The last case on the docket, Reid vs. Hiner, was taken up first Monday afternoon. This was a case for damages in connection with the leasing of the Reid farm. The evidence for the plaintiff was taken Monday afternoon, and Tuesday forenoon the defendant was in the witness box the whole session and his cross-examination by Mr. Nolan was not concluded when the court adjourned for lunch. After hearing the evidence the judge before adjourning advised the parties to get together and try and settle out of court. This was done and on re-opening the judge acquiesced in the settlement and gave his ruling accordingly.

The next case was Davis vs. Bartlett. The evidence for both plaintiff and defendant was all taken before the court closed, but the judge reserved his judgment.

The sittings of the Supreme Court for civil cases at Macleod were closed Wednesday, having finished the docket of cases.

The first case tried Wednesday morning was that of Alma M. Dutil in the matter of the public utilities act 1923 and in the matter of an application by the town of Macleod for the cancellation of plan no. 555 A. Q. MACLEOD.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an application has been made to the Board of Public Utility Commissioners by the Town of Macleod, for the cancellation of the subdivision of Broadview, Macleod, of record in the Land Titles Office for the South Alberta Land Registration District as Plan No. 555 A. BOOHER CONVICTION UPSET; NEW TRIAL

Edmonton, Dec. 4.—The conviction against Vernon Booher, under sentence to hang December 15 for the murder of his mother, brother and two hired men near Mannville in July last, was quashed by the appellate division of the supreme court of Alberta this morning. A new trial was ordered. This probably will take place in January.

The grounds for the setting aside of the conviction were that during the trial the crown prosecutor elicited from Inspector Hancock of the A. P. P. a statement that Booher had made a confession. This was after Chief Justice Simmons, presiding judge, had ruled out Booher's confession of the murders.

N. D. McLean, K. C., counsel for the defense, argued such a statement settled the case in the minds of the jury.

COMING EVENTS FORESHADOWED

MACLEOD HOCKEY CLUB CARD PARTY AND DANCE, FRIDAY DECEMBER 11

The Macleod Hockey Club will hold a card party and dance in the Elks' Hall on Friday, December 14. Cards at 8 o'clock after which lunch will be served followed by dancing. Suitable prizes will be awarded for the winners at cards. This is the first affair of the season for the hockey boys and they are exerting every effort to make it an occasion that will long be remembered. ALBERTA BOARDS OF TRADE SEEKING EXTENSION OF ONTARIO COAL RATE

Toronto, Dec. 3.—Because consumers will not stock up with fuel at any time of the year, and particularly during the warm weather Alberta boards of trade, representing six cities of that province, are asking for an extension of the three-months period fixed by the Dominion government for transporting Alberta coal to Ontario.

The federal order-in-council made the special freight rate from Alberta apply to the period from April 15 to July 15 for two and two subsequent years. According to Toronto dealers the quantity of Alberta coal handled here was not large.

U. S. MOVES TO INCREASE DUTY ON GRAIN IMPORTS

Washington, Dec. 3.—The first move to increase the tariff on agricultural products came almost with the sound of the gavel in the house today with the introduction of a bill by Representative Williamson, Republican, South Dakota, to raise the import duties on various grains.

The Williamson measure would fix the duties on crude flaxseed at 33 cents a ton; on corn, 25 cents a bushel; alfalfa seed at 8 cents a pound and eggs 12 cents a dozen.

In addition it would provide that no drawback be allowed on wheat imported into the United States for milling purposes and would repeal the provisions of the 1922 tariff act insofar as they relate to wheat. It also would levy a duty of 33-10 cents a pound upon all mixed oils containing linseed oil.

ST. ANDREW'S BAZAAR AT MACLEOD IS SUCCESS

The Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church held their annual Christmas Bazaar and Supper Saturday afternoon and evening in the town hall and despite the stormy day, a regular blizzard was blowing all day, the affair was a great success financially. What it would have been had the weather been granted a good day, can only be imagined. Very few of the country members and friends of the congregation were able to get in, had they been able to do so it would have made a considerable difference. However the ladies were quite delighted with the results under the circumstances. The supper, under the able chairmanship of Mrs. James Ringland, was as usual a great success, and helped considerably to mount up the financial receipts. The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers and colored candles and the service by the band of lady waiters was everything that could be desired.

Considerably over 200 were served it was therefore no mean task to purvey for such a crowd and more especially with the variety and delicacies on every plate. Mrs. Ringland was ably supported by a band of willing helpers. Behind the screen, cutting up and filling the plates were, Mrs. Struthers, Mrs. McCrea, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Pringle. Serving the tables were Mrs. Dowse, Mrs. Charlton, Mrs. Sackett, Mrs. Goe, Mrs. Hutton, Miss Tabor, Miss Berry, Miss McCrea, Miss Ringland, Miss Pringle. Pouring coffee, Mrs. McKenzie. Pouring tea, Mrs. Dunn. Treasurer, Mrs. H. H. McLean. The president of the aid, Mrs. Swinerton, welcomed the guests as they entered.

The fancy work table was presided over by Mrs. Tabor, Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Richardson. The pantry table was in charge of Mrs. Whipple and Mrs. Hill. The C. G. I. T. novelty stall and fish pond, had Jessie Little, Irene Portch and Ida Ferguson, in charge and the Mission Band still and Christmas tree was looked after by Florence Lanting, Mina Ringland, Margaret Swinerton and Alberta Bremner.

During the supper the company were favored with selections on the piano by Blossom Lyons and also by Jean Hilliard, piano, and Lee Watson, violin. These musical selections were much appreciated.

MACLEOD ELKS DONATE NEW SWEATERS TO HOCKEY CLUB

—MORE LOCAL INTEREST BEING SHOWN IN HOCKEY THAN FOR YEARS

At the regular meeting of Macleod B. P. O. E. No. 129 on Tuesday evening last the lodge decided to boost the local hockey team in every way possible, and put through a motion to supply the team with new sweaters and stockings. This being with the understanding that the team play under Elk colors—purple and white. This will certainly be a great help to the team as they were badly in need of a new outfit and the Elks are to be highly commended for backing Macleod sport in this manner. This is a sign of awakening interest in sports in Macleod, and is reflected by the interest displayed around town—wherever one goes the main topic of conversation seems to be hockey. This is a very encouraging sign and augurs a successful season for hockey this year if this interest is carried through to its logical conclusion—good attendance at games.

The first league game will be played on December 17, when Macleod plays Staveland on Macleod ice. The other game scheduled for this day will be Chesholm at Nanton. From all indications Macleod is going to have a team worthy of any support given, there being quite a bit of new hockey material available. The first work out was on Tuesday evening, when the rink was officially opened with an excellent sheet of ice. Judging from the performance given at the first practice Macleod is going to have a team this year that will compare favorably with any in the league.

The executive committee is arranging a series of dances in an effort to raise funds for financing of the team, there being a dance scheduled for Saturday night, December 8th and a card party and dance on Friday, December 14th. The boys are selling tickets for the card party and dance and same may

POLA NEGRI DOES LIFE AND LOVES OF RACHEL—ON SAME BILL WITH HOOT GIBSON

The life and loves of the great Rachel, celebrated actress of the last century, have been translated to the screen in Pola Negri's latest Paramount production "Loves of an Actress," which is now being shown at the Empress theater.

The story is an authentic revelation of the romances of the famed tragedienne, and was written by Ernest Vajda, Hungarian playwright, the adaptation and direction being credited to Rowland V. Lee, who has directed some of Miss Negri's most successful vehicles.

Rachel was often called the most romantic adventuress of the 19th century, and her own memoirs have revealed several sensational and notorious affairs with powerful leaders of the times.

Society accepted her because of her fame as a dramatic actress. The world trusted her. But hidden behind all this is the background of passion. Then a young and unsophisticated man appeared and swept the actress off her feet, he being her first real love.

One of the arduous suitors threatened ruin for both Rachel and her new lover, leaving Rachel in a quandary. How she settles the problem forms one of the amazing and dramatic scenes in the Paramount picture.

Miss Negri has been ably cast in the title role, and the others who assist her are Paul Lukas, Nils Asther, Nigel de Bruin, Philip Strange, Richard Tucker, Mary McAlister and Helene Gieré.

Hoot Gibson, Universal's two-fisted Western star, returns here, more popular than ever in the best picture he has ever made with the opening of "The Flyin' Cowboy" at the Empress Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Hoot is seen in a new role. He is employed as the lone contributor of Western thrills, gun-fights, desperate riding and everything else associated with the West on the Bar-X Dude Ranch.

The idol of millions of picture-goers is seen at the peak of his screen career. He surpasses even his former daredevil riding; he proves his ability to act in the many romantic scenes, and he also shows his rare gift, for a Western player of real comedy.

"NOT FOR PUBLICATION" PACKAGED WITH VIRILE DRAMA

A unique and unusually gripping plot has been transferred to the screen in "Not For Publication," being shown at the Empress Theatre Monday and Tuesday. Adapted from the story, "The Temple of the Giants," by Robert Wells Ritchie, the picture is filled with high spots. Unlike the greater number of screen dramas of the present time, action in "Not For Publication" is not limited to a mere climax. Thrills predominate the entire story.

The break-up of a huge dam, screened in a most striking and uncommon manner, is one of the great scenes of the picture. A blast of dynamite planted at the base crumbles up a great retaining wall, letting loose a torrent of swirling water and bringing the action of the story to its greatest height. The scene is remarkably done on a scale never before attempted in a similar filming.

OBITUARY

DEATH OF MRS. ELIZABETH McNAB

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 4th, from Christ Church (Anglican), Macleod, of Mrs. Elizabeth McNab, who died at her home in Macleod on Sunday evening, at the age of 85 years. Mrs. McNab was born in Ireland and was married there about 60 years ago to James McNab. Coming to Canada with her husband, they resided for a number of years in Ottawa, before coming west to Macleod in 1883. They located at Slideout on the Belly River, East of Macleod, where Mr. McNab engaged in ranching and farming. Since her husband's death Mrs. McNab has resided in Macleod at her home on 19th Street. Mrs. McNab is survived by three sons, Robert, William and Joseph, all resident in the Slideout district. One son died a number of years ago. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. E. Randall Powell, Rector of Christ Church, Macleod, and were attended by a great number of old time friends and acquaintances. Many floral tributes gave mute testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held. The pall bearers were: D. J. Grier, H. Little, E. Forster Brown, A. F. Grady, W. G. Andrews and Wesley Shield.

CARD OF THANKS

Robert, William and Joseph McNab and families wish to thank friends and acquaintances for helpfulness and sympathy on the occasion of their recent bereavement. Also to thank donors of flowers at the funeral of Mrs. E. McNab.

Because It Pays

The one great reason for having a Farmers' Company is that it pays farmers to have it. And the one great reason for using the Farmers' Company elevator is that it pays to use it. Long experience has proved to farmers that it does pay to have a Farmers' Company and that it does pay to make use of it.

MEMORIAL SERVICE OF MAC- LEOD B. P. O. E. No. 129—AN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIAL

The B. P. O. E. Lodge, Macleod No. 129, held their first Memorial Service Sunday afternoon in the Empress Theatre, at which a large audience attended. Unfortunately the weather prevented practically all the country members of the lodge from attending, which was very much to be regretted as there are a very large number of former members in the lodge.

Exalted Ruler, Frank P. Walshe, presided, and he was accompanied on the platform by Dr. W. E. Spankie, Calgary; D. M. Leyden, P. D. D. G. E. R., Granum; Mayor J. W. McDonald, K. C.; W. H. Shield, M. L. A.; Rev. Randall Powell, D. W. Davis, R. V. Baker, R. Hamilton and L. Dixon.

The program was opened with the "Junior H. March" by the orchestra under the leadership of W. J. Ryan. The Memorial Ritual, given by the officers of the lodge. The Opening Ode was then sung, the audience joining. The Exalted Ruler in a few well chosen remarks gave the invocation, a soprano solo "Beyond the Dawn," was rendered by Mrs. C. Brewster, with Mrs. D. White playing the accompaniment. The opening address was given by Mayor McDonald. He spoke of the three members of the lodge that had passed over the great divide. Of the hope of immortality, which is one of the strong foundation beliefs of Elksdom, which is based on the words of "The Great Exalted Ruler," who said "I go to prepare a place for you." The same Great Ruler who cares for and watches over us in life will also provide for us after death. That said the speaker, is part of the teachings of Elksdom. The Orchestra then gave the "March Romaine," after which D. M. Leyden gave an address, his subject being "Our Absent Brothers," he spoke of the principles of the Order: Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity. He said that Charity was not the giving of money only, but also the kindly word, the friendly helping hand to those in distress or in need of sympathy, the bright and cheerful word to all we come in contact with, having for our motto "The World is Better that I Live Today," and to make the old world a little better because we have lived in it before our time comes to pass over to the other side. Miss Olive Young then sang that beautiful alto solo "Rest in the Lord," from Handel's "Messiah," Mrs. F. Cutler accompanying.

Dr. Spankie then addressed the audience, his subject being, "The Ideals of Elksdom." He spoke of the great Order of Elksdom, and what it had accomplished in the years since it had been instituted. He said, that today, it was the greatest fraternal Order in Canada. That, he said was a very strong statement to make as there were other great orders in Canada who had been in existence for many years, but had any of them done the work or achieved the success or attained the position in the country that Elksdom had done? The principles of Elksdom and the work of the lodge is to raise Canada to be the greatest Dominion in the British Empire. Elksdom is doing a great community work in building halls, lodge rooms and assisting in many ways to better the community life wherever lodges have been organized. He said it was marvelous what Elksdom had been able to accomplish in the short time they had been in existence. The high standard of their principles in the lodge room were touched on, where all were equal, high and low, rich and poor were all on the same footing; their great object was to make men better, life sweeter and the world happier, and from their members, that life to radiate to the outside world.

W. H. Shield, M. L. A., gave the closing address, summing up in a few words the benefits to be attained by living up to the principles laid down by the Order, and which had been so fully brought before them by the previous speakers.

Exalted Ruler Walshe thanked all who had contributed to the success of the service and the proprietors of the Empress Theatre for kindly donating its use for the occasion. After singing the National Anthem the Rev. F. Randall Powell closed the Service with prayer and the Benediction.

CARDSTON ODD FELLOWS ON FRATERNAL VISIT TO MAC- LEOD LODGE

The great advantage of having the fine new gravelled highway completed between Cardston and Macleod was demonstrated last Thursday night, when four carloads of Odd Fellows from the Cardston lodge paid a fraternal visit to Mountain View Lodge No. 4, Macleod. All spoke in glowing terms of the splendid condition of the road and how quickly they had come over. Dr. V. Christie, past grand master, who is a member of the Cardston lodge brought 15 of the brothers of that lodge for the visitation. Dr. Christie is no stranger in the Macleod lodge for, as he said last night, he has been so often present at the meetings of the Macleod lodge, that he feels quite at home amongst the Macleod boys.

The Cardston lodge had a candidate whom they were anxious to put through the second and third degrees, and a number of the members wanted to see the Macleod team put on these degrees, so they brought their candidate over and the degrees were exemplified and the work was evidently very much appreciated by the visiting brethren, from the laudatory remarks made by several at the conclusion of the degree work.

During the business of the regular meeting the nomination and election of officers for the ensuing term took place. The following were elected: Noble grand, R. Wallace Hamilton; vice grand, Harry Sutherland; recording secretary, Fred Timleck, P. G.; financial secretary, R. J. F. Gardiner, P. G.; treasurer, Wm. Whitworth, P. G.

At the close of the meeting luncheon was served by the Macleod brothers and a jolly hour was spent in short speeches and story telling. The Cardston boys are certainly a lively bunch and made themselves quite at home. All present had a really delightful time and the hope was expressed by many that we have more of these fraternal visits in the future.

MACLEOD LADY WINS ART SCHOLARSHIP

Word has just been received in Macleod from London, England, of the success of a former student and teacher of the Macleod schools. Mrs. James G. Hood (nee Jessie Jackson), who was born and reared in the Macleod district and received all her education in the schools of Macleod, has been successful in winning a scholarship at the South London School of Art. A few years ago Mrs. Hood went overseas with her husband and while he was working in London and France she was a student at the London School of Art for a short time. In 1927 she came home for a visit and stayed for about a year, and it is since her return to England that she gained the scholarship for the study of a man's head. The scholarship entitles her to resume her studies for another year. Mrs. Hood was a teacher of the staff of the Macleod public school during the war while her husband was at the front.

CARIBOO, MOOSE, DEER FALL BEFORE MACLEOD HUNTERS

Four hunters returned to Macleod Saturday morning from a most successful big game hunting trip away in the north country.

A few weeks ago six Macleod boys left in a grain truck for moose hunting in the Goose Lake district north-west of Edmonton. They were Albert Collar, Art Cheeny, Orval Stewart, Tom Laycock, Reynold Hahn and Dan Giles. After they reached the hunting grounds and had secured one moose, Orval Stewart and Tom Laycock had to return, but the other four remained and were fortunate in securing three more moose, two deer and one cariboo. These seven animals they landed in Macleod Sunday morning and they are perfect beauties. The cariboo is a splendid specimen with beautiful antlers, and must weigh about 500 pounds. It took them only two or three days to secure the game, as it was very plentiful, but it took the boys six days to bring them out, they were so far from their camp. When they started on their last lap of the journey home, they were 70 miles north of Edmonton and from there to Macleod they made the trip in 21 hours, without a stop or rest. When they landed in Macleod they were pretty tired boys, but needless to say very proud of the success of their trip. The cariboo is on exhibition in the P. Burns company meat market, also the heads of some of the moose and deer.

SIX MONTHS FOR FORGERY

The preliminary hearing of a case of cheque forging came before Magistrate W. A. Day in police court Tuesday afternoon. The accused, Wm. Morton, has been working on the roads around Macleod for some months, and on November 10th and 12th he forged and passed to tradesmen in Macleod three cheques—$10.00, $20.00 and $35.00. The name forged was that of Thos

Bailey, of Ardenville. Magistrate Day committed the accused to the District Court. As the accused desired a speedy trial it was arranged that Judge A. M. MacDonald of the District Court would try the case Tuesday evening at 7:30. The accused pleaded guilty to all three charges, and as it developed that he had surrendered himself to the police at Medicine Hat, Monday, the judge took this fact into consideration in sentencing him to 6 months in Lethbridge gaol.

There Is Little That Is New

in groceries, but Xmas is coming with the heavy responsibilities it lays upon the cook, and, expecting as we do, that the cook will excel herself in the culinary art in the festive season, it is up to us to see that she is provided with materials of the highest quality with which "to do her stuff." A silk purse can't be made from a sow's ear, even in our kitchens. The moral is: Buy quality groceries at the White Hall, and put the onus upon the cook. J. E. Gillis, barrister of Blairmore, was in Macleod for a few days this week connected with business at the Supreme Court.

Rev. F. Randall Powell and Geo. Pearson attended the meeting of the Macleod Rural Denary held at Coleman on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Percy Langley, clerk at the Empire Hotel, will leave on Sunday evening next for England where he will spend the next few weeks. Percy's many friends in Macleod wish him "Bon Voyage" and a real good time at Christmas in his little home town of London.

At the regular meeting of the Town Council held at the Town Hall on Monday evening last, nothing of importance was transacted, only ordinary routine work being on the minutes. Mayor J. W. McDonald and Councillors W. A. Day, Alex. McLeod, W. O. Hoodless, C. E. Tweed and W. Stevens being in attendance.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Official Board of the United Church, Macleod, on Monday night, one item of business was the receipt for the registration of the deeds of the Church property, which has been placed in safekeeping, for future generations to enjoy. This is the result of the big drive made during Rev. W. H. Irwin's term of ministry in the Macleod church. J. L. Fawcett took the matter up and the receipt was handed in by A. F. Grady who is Secretary of the Board of Trustees. The church property is now clear of all debt.

A splendid group took lunch with "The Brotherhood" of the United Church Tuesday when the young aspirants for Parliamentary Honors at the coming Boys' Parliament outlined their respective platforms and explained the work of the Boys' Parliament. The two speakers were Ivor Brooks and Carl Tobison, both of whom spoke well in defense of their respective programmes. The election will take place at the United Church Hall Thursday, Dec. 6th from 7 p. m. to 7:30 p. m. Roger Hunt, returning Officer. This Interdenominational Boys' Work is annually increasing in importance and scope and is doing a much needed work for Alberta Boys. Next Tuesday evening the speaker at The Brotherhood will be Mr. A. J. E. Lieberman, B. A., Principal of Macleod H. S., and his theme will centre around "Parents' and Teachers' Training the Future Race." A large gathering is assured.

One of the unusual achievements in church work was the remarkable record of Mrs. W. G. Andrews, Pres. of the United Church Ladies' Aid presented at the annual meeting of that body on Tuesday afternoon. For twelve years Mrs. Andrews has guided the undertakings of that splendid group of women, ably assisted by her executive, but still looked to as its guide. Her work has been one of most commendable insight, perseverance and achievement. In the review of the year's work there was everything to inspire and encourage hope for the future, and the incoming executive took up the task with the assured loyalty and support of the retiring President. The officers elect for the year were:—Honorary President, Mrs. W. G. Andrews; Pres. Mrs. H. Ripley; Vice Pres., Mrs. R. Gillespie; Sec., Mrs. J. T. Doney; Treas., Mrs. A. F. Grady. The full report of the year's work was the most inspiring for years and the final undertaking for the financial year will be the bazaar in the town hall on Saturday of this week.

That Rhodes scholars are playing a prominent part in American leadership is shown by the fact that 72 of the 140 who have reached the age of forty are listed in Who's Who.
